

Indiana Philosophical Association

Minutes - 4/7/45

545-

The Indiana Philosophical Association met on Saturday, April 7, 1945, at the Indianapolis Extension Center of Indiana University.

The following members registered as being present:

Ayres	Aorn
Bentley	Caroburn
Clark	Luchs
Doyle	McGowan
Greer	Miller
Hertel	Minor
Hildebrandt	Neumann
James	Stephens
Joscy	Vogel
Kaiser	Ward
Kennedy

The program was as follows:
(copy attached)

The business session was held before luncheon because the impossibility of obtaining accommodations before 1:15. The business transacted was as follows:

The minutes for the meetings of October 28, 1943, and of March 28, 1945, were read and approved. Also read and approved was an account of the cancellation of a meeting scheduled for January 29, 1944.

The treasurer's report was read and approved.

The collections of dues of $1 per member was suggested by the secretary on behalf of the treasurer. This was approved.

The president and treasurer suggested the circularizing of the members in order to bring the membership rolls up to date. This was approved.

The following candidates were elected to membership in the association: (see attached list)

A nominating committee consisting of Kennedy, McGowan, Ward (chairman), and Ayres suggested that the present officers be continued in office until the Fall Meeting. This was approved.

Indiana Philosophical Association

Minutes - 4/7/45

(continued)

The members adjourned for luncheon at 1:15 at the Athenaeum Taverners. The secretary discovered too late that he had ordered a luncheon without consent. The members sulked.

During the afternoon session a motion was passed to make Dr. Greer's paper available to college libraries in the state.

The meeting adjourned at 4.