

Program and Announcements

JOINT MEETING OF THE INDIANA PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION AND THE PHILOSOPHY SECTION, OHIO COLLEGE ASSOCIATION

Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio

April 1 and 2, 1955.

* * * * *

PROGRAM

Friday, April 1.

1:30 - 2:30 p.m. Registration - Koch Hall Auditorium

2:30 - 5:00 p.m. Afternoon Session - Koch Hall Auditorium

Chairman: Robert G. Stephens (Indiana University)

"An Inquiry into the Philosophical Foundations of the Analytical Psychology of C. G. Jung" by T. J. J. Altizer (Wabash College). Opening Criticism by

"The Historical and Philosophical Semantics of McKeon" by Wayne Booth (Earlham College). Opening Criticism by

"A Course in Business Ethics" by Herbert Johnston (University of Notre Dame). Opening Criticism by

5:00 - 5:30 Business Meetings

Indiana Philosophical Association - Koch Hall Auditorium
Philosophy Section, Ohio - Koch Hall, Room 205

6:30 Banquet (Informal) - Woodlawn Hall Dining Room

The banquet will be followed by a Panel Program in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the birth of Josiah Royce, then by informal discussion and fellowship in Woodlawn Hall Lounge.

Chairman: Robert G. Stephens

"Can We Expect a Revival of Idealism?" - Newton P. Stallknecht (Indiana University)

"Can Idealism Be Proved?" - J. Harry Cotton (Wabash College)

"Can Idealism Be Made a Personal Philosophy?" - D. Luther Evans (Ohio State University)

Saturday, April 2

9:15 - 12 m. Morning Session - Koch Hall Auditorium

Chairman: Robert G. Remsberg (Wittenberg College)

"Thomas Hobbes on Civil Disobedience" by Robert Wieman (Ohio University). Opening Criticism by Gordon H. Clark (Butler University)

"Some Criticisms of Cultural Relativism" by Paul F. Schmidt (Oberlin College). Opening Criticism by David Bidney (Indiana University)

"Oxford Philosophy" by Morris Weitz (Ohio State University)

12 m. Luncheon - Woodlawn Hall

* * * * *

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Wittenberg College will provide meals and dormitory accommodations at the rates shown on the enclosed card. Please return this reservation card promptly, so that it will reach Professor Remsberg not later than Friday, March 25.

If you prefer hotel accommodations, reservations for them should be made directly with the hotel concerned, mentioning these meetings.

Advanced and graduate students in philosophy are welcome at all sessions, but they too should send in advance reservations for accommodations.

All times shown on this program are Eastern Standard Time.

To find the Wittenberg campus, watch for the small red and white signs on street corners in Springfield.

* * * * *

Indiana Philosophical Association - Philosophy Section, Ohio Coll. Assn.

President: Robert G. Stephens,
(Indiana University)
Vice-Pres.: Rev. R. W. Schmidt,
S.J., (West Baden College)
Secretary: Grimsley T. Hobbs,
(Earlham College)
Treasurer: Monsignor John Doyle,
(Marian College)

President: Robert G. Remsberg,
(Wittenberg College)
Advisor: Virgil C. Aldrich,
(Kenyon College)
Sec'y-Treas.: Maylon H. Hepp,
(Denison University)
Program Committee: W. S. Gamerts-
felder, Chairman, (Ohio Univ.);
Everett J. Nelson (Ohio State U.)