

INDIANA PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION

Fall Meeting
October 18, 1969

Ball State University
Student Center
University and McKinley Avenues

Program

9:30 - 10:15 Registration on Third Floor
West Guest Lounge
Coffee and doughnuts

Sessions in Sunburst Room, Room 307

Welcoming Statement
Thanks and Intro of Raju 10:15 - noon Morning paper: "Philosophical Crises, with special reference to the Indian"
Dr. P. P. Raju, Guest Philosophy Lecturer at Ball State University

Question Period

noon Lunch, Student Center cafeteria and Oak Room

1:15 - 3:30 Business meeting, including election of officers for 1969-70

Intro to Cochiarrella.
Afternoon paper: "Existence"
Professor Nino Cochiarrella
Indiana University

As shown on the enclosed map, the most direct route to Ball State's location in northwest Muncie is from I-69 via Fillotson and University Avenues.

Parking is available on streetside and in the visitor and faculty areas near the Student Center. The lot immediately east of the Student Center is restricted to one-hour parking and so posted.

Members of the Indiana Philosophical Association, their colleagues and their friends, are also invited to the lecture by Dr. Raju at 7:30 P. M. on Friday, October 17. See the enclosed program for details.

For overnight accommodations, direct arrangements with the downtown motel, hotel, or inn (shown at the right on the Map for Conferences) is suggested.

Pres. Report. Thanks to Ball State
April 11, 1970. Invite invitations.
No Party summaries.

- get Paul to take notes on the meeting
- get new names
- 2) V.P. Report on the Junior Division and new arrangements
- 3) Sec. Unable to be present (minutes given by pres.)
- 4) Treas. report. (Amount of dues?)
- 5) Nomination of new members (over)