

4/24/48

SPRING MEETING
of the
INDIANA PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION at
ST. MARY-OF-THE-WOODS-COLLEGE

PROGRAM

- 10:30 Welcome Address: Reverend Raymond McGinnis
- Pseudo-Problem of a Philosophy for the "Present Time": Eugene Dyche
- Existentialist Approach to Being: William Young
- Business Meeting
- 1:00 Lunch
- Music by St. Mary-of-the-Woods Sinfonietta directed by Doris Palmer
- 2:00 A Theistic Critique of the Humanist Manifesto: John C. Wenger
- The Philosophy of Mystery: Anton Pegis

Biographical data: McGinnis, Rev. Raymond: M.A., S.T.L. Catholic University; now Head of the Philosophy Department at St. Mary-of-the Woods College. Dyche, Eugene: A.M., Oklahoma University; Ph.D., University of Southern California; taught for a time at Stephens College; now Chairman of the Department of Philosophy at Indiana State Teachers College, Terre Haute. Young, Rev. William: B.A. Columbia University; Th.B., Th. M., Westminster Seminary, Philadelphia; Ph.D., Union Seminary, New York; now in the Department of Philosophy at Butler University, Indianapolis. Wenger, Rev. John: B.A., Goshen College; Th.D., University of Zurich, Switzerland; M.A., University of Michigan; now professor of Theology and Philosophy at Goshen College, Goshen. Pegis, Anton; A.B., A.M., Marquette University; Ph.D., University of Toronto, Canada; taught at Marquette and Fordham Universities; now professor of the History of Philosophy and Head of the Pontifical Institute of Medieval Studies at Toronto.

St. Mary-Of-the-Woods College is not far from Terre Haute, Indiana. It is most conveniently reached by taking from Terre Haute Road U.S.40 West to U.S.150 which turns right off 40 about 2 miles outside of Terre Haute. Four miles down 150 there is a road to the left, marked by the sign 'St. Mary-of-the-Woods College', leading to the front gates of the college.

The meetings will be held in Guerin Hall and the Conservatory, the first two buildings on the left as one enters the grounds. The Senior Philosophers will meet in the Little Theatre in Guerin Hall, the first building on the left; the Juniors in the Conservatory Auditorium, the second building on the left. At the door, respective groups may register and purchase luncheon tickets.

JUNIOR INDIANA PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION

ANNUAL SPRING MEETING

April 24, 1948

Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College

Saint Mary-of-the-Woods, Indiana

Morning Session, 10:30 a.m.

1. "Pluralism from a Student's Point of View"
Mr. Jasper Garner, Manchester College
2. "The Epistemology of Immanuel Kant"
Miss Elizabeth Jane Stucky, Butler University
3. "The Scholastic Theory of Knowledge"
Mr. Joseph Grace, Saint Joseph's College
4. Business meeting---Election of officers

Luncheon, 1:00 p.m.

Afternoon Session, 2:00 p.m.

"D. C. MacIntosh's Critical Approach to Epistemological Realism"

Mr. Richard C. Smith, Indiana University

Joint Session with the Senior Division, 3:00 p.m.

"The Philosophy of Mystery"

Dr. Anton C. Pegis, Pontifical Institute of Medieval Studies