

F '57

INDIANA PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION
Fall Meeting, November 2, 1957
DEPAUW UNIVERSITY
Greencastle, Indiana

- 9:00 - Coffee Hour, Room 221, Memorial Student Union
We are guests of the Department of Philosophy and Religion of DePauw University.
- 10:00 - Morning Session of the Senior Division
Room 212, Memorial Student Union
- "TOWARD A PHILOSOPHY OF ACTION"
by Sister Mary Annice, St. Mary's College
Notre Dame, Indiana
- "THE REFERRENTS OF THEOLOGICAL PROPOSITIONS"
by Richard F. Grabau, Hanover College
Hanover, Indiana
- 10:00 - Morning Session of the Junior Division
Room 207, Memorial Student Union
- Papers by students selected in the Contest for Junior Division papers.
- 12:00 - Luncheon, for both Divisions and their guests
Room 221, Memorial Student Union
Reservations @ $1.50 per plate. Please send the enclosed postcard.
- 1:00 - Business Session, both Divisions.
Awarding of Prizes for Junior Division papers.
Reports of Officers, and other Association business.
Election of new members. (Will present members receiving this notice please propose for membership any new persons in your area who may be interested and qualified for membership.)
Time and place of next meeting. (Any invitations?)
Election of Officers.
- 2:00 - Afternoon Session of Senior Division, Room 212
- "TOWARDS A PHILOSOPHY OF A WORLD STATE"
by Rev. Joseph Dooley, Marian College
Indianapolis, Indiana
- 2:00 - Afternoon Session of Junior Division, Room 207
- Prize winning and Honorable Mention papers

Greencastle is located on State Highway 43, between Federal Highways 36 and 40.

The Memorial Student Union is located at the intersection of South Locust and Hanna Streets, in the southeast part of the town of Greencastle.

The University requests "a definite guarantee of luncheon reservations."
Please send these direct, by phone or mail to

Professor Carroll DeWitt Hildebrand
606 East Washington Street
Greencastle, Indiana Telephone: Greencastle 667

by Wednesday, October 30.

INDIANA PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION

Fall Meeting -- Junior Division
November 2, 1957

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY - GREENCASTLE

9:00 Coffee Hour, Room 221, Memorial Student Union
We are guests of the Department of Philosophy and Religion of DePauw University.

10:00 Room 207, Memorial Student Union

"Peace and War: Implications of the Augustinian Formulation."
Winner of First Prize
Mr. Gordon Wagoner, DePauw University

"Maurice Blondel's Philosophy of Action."
Winner of Second Prize
Brother Germain Swisshelm, O.S.B., St. Meinrad Seminary

Honorable Mention: Papers by Mr. John Stoneburner of Earlham College, Mr. Urban Thobe, of St. Joseph's College, Mr. Thomas Kosco of Wabash College, Mr. Frank Granzeier, S.J., of West Baden College, Mr. Lynn Mack of Valparaiso University and Mr. Francis Houdek, S.J. of West Baden College.

Board of Judges for the Contest:
Professor Robert G. Stephens, Indiana University
Professor J. Harry Cotton, Wabash College
Professor Eric Dean, Wabash College

12:00 Luncheon, Room 221, Memorial Student Union

1:00 Business Meeting of both Divisions of the Association

2:00 Joint Session of both Divisions, Room 212, Memorial Union Building or
Separate Session of the Junior Division, Room 207, Memorial Union Building
(To be decided by vote of Junior Members present at the morning session.)

Tentative Papers for the Junior Division Afternoon Session.

"Nietzsche's Critique of Christian Morality: An Interpretation."
Mr. John Stoneburner, Earlham College

"The Scientist in Search of Wisdom."
Mr. Urban Thobe, St. Joseph's College

"Martin Buber on I-Thou."
Mr. Thomas Kosco, Wabash College

"Dynamic Freedom: A Study in Kierkegaardian Ethics."
Mr. Frank Granzeier, S.J., West Baden College

"Causality and the Scientific Method."
Mr. Lynn Mack, Valparaiso University