Indiana Philosophical Association

Spring 2021 Undergraduate Paper Prize

The Indiana Philosophical Association announces its annual undergraduate paper prize. The objective of the prize is to encourage and to recognize, at the undergraduate level in Indiana's colleges and universities, philosophical research and writing of the highest quality.

Papers in any area of philosophical inquiry are welcome. To be eligible, an author must currently be an undergraduate student, registered full-time during Spring 2021, at a college or university in Indiana, but need not be majoring in philosophy. Submissions must be sponsored and sent to us by a faculty member at the author's home institution. That faculty member should, as an attachment to the submission, attest to the author's eligibility.

Submitted papers should be (i.) no more than 3000 words, (ii.) prepared for anonymous review, and (iii.) accompanied by a separate page that includes title, author information (name, affiliation, and contact information), and an abstract not exceeding 150 words.

Submissions should be sent to Professor Jeffrey Gower at gowerj@wabash.edu.

Deadline for submissions is February 1, 2021.

The award for the best undergraduate paper will be accompanied by a cash prize of $100. The prize-winning author will have the opportunity to present his or her paper at the Spring 2021 meeting of the Indiana Philosophical Association.
